SUSTAINABLE SOURCING IN FOOD AND FIBRE

Co-designed with SAI Platform Australia, this 6-week 100% online Melbourne MicroCert will equip you with specialist skills to understand and implement sustainable sourcing along supply chains. Spanning a total of 40 hours, this includes up to 8 hours of contact learning, self-paced reading, and assessment. Successful completion will earn you a digital certificate you can share online with your professional network. This equates to  $\frac{1}{4}$  of a University of Melbourne subject and can be used to unlock pathways to further study.

Understand sustainable sourcing principles and concepts

This Melbourne MicroCert will equip individuals and businesses involved in food and fibre production with the skills and knowledge required to understand and apply sustainable sourcing along supply chains in an environment where there is increasing demand for sustainable products and services.

Topics covered within this Melbourne MicroCert are:

- Key sustainable food and fibre concepts
- International trends and drivers of sustainable sourcing
- Systems for demonstrating sustainable sourcing
- Developing sustainable sourcing policies and practices
- Identifying and selecting between alternative sustainable sourcing systems
- Practical case studies of sustainable food and fibre sourcing

With direct access to world leading subject experts, you will benefit from our industry relevant knowledge, enabling you to make informed choices using sustainable principles and concepts.
